A Bookworm’s View

“Assault With a Deadly Glue Gun” by Lois Winston

A delightful romp with a ménage of characters to rival Evanovich. Deceit, destruction, murder and mayhem combine to make an enjoyable, relaxing read. Anastasia, our heroine, stumbles her way through being a destitute widow, suspected killer, and keeping her job, to of course, a solution. Try it – you’ll like it.

Panama Travel Program

Wednesday, July 27th, 2011

6:30 p.m.

Library Lower Level

Join us as Tom and Miriam Bredesen take us on a photographic journey into the heart of Panama as they experienced the beauty and wonders of this culture. No registration is necessary for this informative program. For more information call the Library at 715-546-3391.

Trees For Tomorrow @ the Demmer

What’s a Herpetile?

July 20th

6:30 p.m.

Library Lower Level

An educator from Trees For Tomorrow (TFT), an independent, nonprofit natural resource specialty school, will present an educational program about Herpetiles. Topics discussed will include: What is a Herpetile? Who’s slimy and who’s not? Take a close look at Wisconsin’s herpetile species, learn about the differences between them, their life cycles, and why they are an important part of Wisconsin’s ecosystems. Meet a few live herpetile species too! No registration is necessary for this program. For more information call the Library at 715-546-3391.
It’s a small world after all!
Children from preschool through fifth grade are invited to participate in our summer reading program. Bingo cards are available at the library with all the details on how the reading program works. In addition, we have a variety of programs for FREE family fun!

Wisconsin History Display

The local history section of the Local History and Genealogy Room at the Demmer Library houses a collection of Wisconsin history books that are not only useful to the history buff, but are fascinating in some of the little know facts about our state. The problem is they are tucked away where very few people notice them. With that in mind, we will be displaying a sampling of these books in the main part of the library. Look for this display on the counter near the circulation desk, above the DVD collection. Some of the noteworthy books that will be found there will include:

- Putting Down Roots: Gardening Insights from Wisconsin’s Early Settlers, by Marcia C. Carmichael
- Population 484, by Michael Perry
- The 25 Greatest Moments in Camp Randall History, by Mike Luca
- Folk Songs Out of Wisconsin, edited by Harry B. Peters
- The Flavor of Wisconsin, by Harva Hachten
- Death in a Prairie Home, by William R. Drennan
- The W-Files, by Jay Roth
- Steam and Cinders, by Axel Lorenzsonn

But don’t stop there. We invite you to browse the Wisconsin history collection in the Local History and Genealogy Room often. We guarantee you’ll learn a lot about the rich history of Wisconsin as well as getting to know some of those little known trivial facts that makes Wisconsin unique in these great United States of ours.

Computer Timing Program

PC Timing Software is working great! You will need your library card and 4 – digit PIN to log on to a computer. If you forgot your PIN, ask us and we can look it up for you. Temporary guest passes are available for visitors; however if you are a return visitor please register for a library card. Remember to check the monitor to determine how long the wait time will be for a computer. The public use computers are networked to print at our copier for 25 cents per page. Wi-Fi access is also available 24/7 inside or outside of the Library building. Please ask a librarian if you need further assistance.
