

Greenfire Management Services Weekly Update

Edward U. Demmer Memorial Library

GREENFIRE
— BUILDERS OF THE FUTURE —

Update Week of December 10, 2018

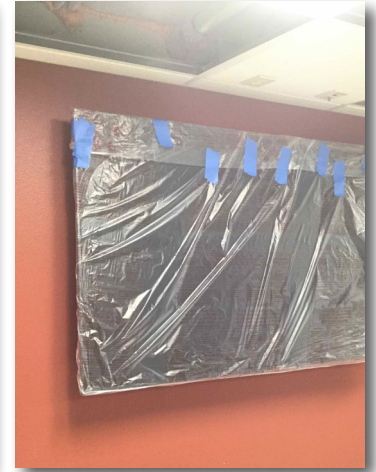

LP cedar shakes are installed on the East addition.

Updated view of the main entrance hallway.

Olive colored corner guards.

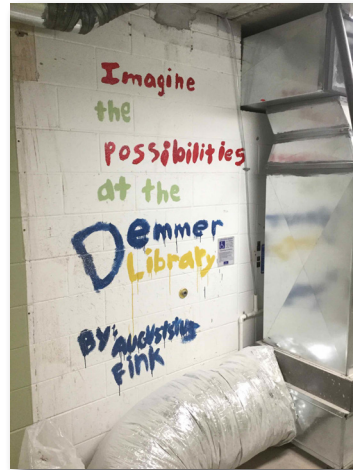

Television is installed and awaiting eager viewers in the Conference Room (#122).

View of the double vented soffit (Southeast corner).

Cabinetry and plumbing fixtures have been installed.

The Library is committed to preserving past projects. This mural is in what is now the Mechanical Room (#112).

South exterior is nearly complete. The batten boards have been installed to give the final appearance.

Week Ahead

Coming up this week, siding will continue around the building. Greenfire anticipates the East side will be completed by next week. Inspections are taking place for HVAC, plumbing, electrical, and fire protection. Once all above ceiling inspections are complete and action items are corrected, the ceiling tile will be finished, allowing the flooring to be installed.
